Dear Mrs Corbold:

Moving the deadline to January 16th, 2012 is fine with me.

Dear Mr. Tapp,

As you are aware, the Tribunal has recently scheduled the hearing in the Michael Jack matter for May 22, 23 and 24, 2012 and the deadline for the parties to file their list of arguably relevant documents is December 13, 2011. In light of the fact that the hearing is not until the end of May, I was wondering if you would be agreeable to moving that deadline to January 16, 2012. If so, I will write to the Tribunal and advise them of that agreement.

Dear Registrar:

I am writing to confirm the Ministry's availability to attend the hearing in this matter on May 22, 23 and 24, 2012. I am also writing to advise that the Ministry and Mr. Jack's representative, Lloyd Tapp, have both agreed to move the deadline for providing each other with their lists of all arguably relevant documents from December 13, 2011 to January 16, 2012. Please note that I have copied Mr. Tapp on this email

Subject: Request for an Extension of Time to Disclose Arguably Relevant Documents

The Human Rights Tribunal of Ontario (HRTO) is in receipt of correspondence from the Respondents dated November 28, 2011 seeking an extension of time for making disclosure and production in accordance with the HRTO's Rule 16.1.

In these circumstances, and with the consent of the other parties, the HRTO grants the request pursuant to Rule 1.1 and 1.7(a) of the Tribunal's Rules of Procedure

The parties will make their Rule 16.1 disclosures to each other by January 16, 2012. The parties' obligations under Rule 16.2, 16.3 and Rule 17 remain unchanged and they must comply with these disclosure deadlines 45 days prior to the first scheduled hearing date.
