Dear Mr. Gerretsen:

A Statement of Claim has been filed with the Ontario Superior Court of Justice naming the Ontario Provincial Police and several of its employees as the defendants.

Pursuant to sections 5(1) and 7(1) of the Proceedings Against the Crown Act you are being given notice that sixty days from the date of this notice an amendment will be filed to the Statement of Claim identifying Her Majesty the Queen as represented by the Government of Ontario as a defendant. A copy of the amended Statement of Claim will subsequently be served on the Attorney General of Ontario.

Attached to this notice is a copy of the claim identifying the Ontario Provincial Police and the Ontario Provincial Police Association as two of the defendants and which will also afford relevant information regarding the pending Statement of Claim against the Government of Ontario.

Sincerely,

Lloyd Tapp for Michael Jack

STATEMENT OF CLAIM

TO THE DEFENDANT

A LEGAL PROCEEDING HAS BEEN COMMENCED AGAINST YOU by the plaintiff. The claim made against you is set out in the following pages.

IF YOU WISH TO DEFEND THIS PROCEEDING, you or an Ontario lawyer acting for you must prepare a statement of defence in Form 18A prescribed by the Rules of Civil Procedure, serve it on the plaintiff's lawyer or, where the plaintiff does not have a lawyer, serve it on the plaintiff, and file it, with proof of service in this court office, WITHIN TWENTY DAYS after this statement of claim is served on you, if you are served in Ontario.

If you are served in another province or territory of Canada or in the United States of America, the period for serving and filing your statement of defence is forty days. If you are served outside Canada and the United States of America, the period is sixty days.
